

Things to do at home if you are self-isolating

There are many educational companies offering free subscriptions please see link for these below. Please see your Childs' topic planner where you can look at what work your child needs.

<https://kidsactivitiesblog.com/135609/list-of-education-companies-offering-free-subscriptions/>

In addition to the above here are some fun links to do

- Another great way to help children learn from home is a virtual field trip to somewhere cool, like the Galapagos Islands!
- Spend some time off electronics and pick from 25 different screen-free activities for children
- Quick and easy 5 minute crafts are the way to go.
- Break out the junk drawer! Help children learn with everyday objects.
- Science games bring lots of fun to learning!
- Now is a great time to try out subscription boxes for kids.
- Shh! They won't even realise they're learning with our fun math games for kids.
- Yes! Your kids can learn without screens.
- Might as well homeschool preschool while you're at it.
- Kiddos bouncing off the walls? Try these active games for kids.
- Learn and play with science activities for kids.
- Mix things up with these inside games for kids.
- Edible playdough is fun with make, then eat! (Just be sure your child wash their hands!)
- I just know there is a child in your house who wants to make unicorn slime.